Visitors from USA, South Korea, Brazil, Japan and nearly all European countries meet in Duesseldorf every time, the design event takes place. Indian summer on the Rhine combined with some great finds – more and more visitors have already made a tradition out of it. They combine their design trip to Paris/France, Amsterdam/Netherlands or Antwerp + Brussels / Belgium with their visit to Duesseldorf – and they are delighted! At the design classic duesseldorf, they find all the important European Design Galleries as exhibitors – and even more, a talk with the young new gallerists and co-collectors who act as one-time sellers is always appreciated!

Renowned auction houses active in the field of modern design are present with information booths: Bruun Rasmussen (Copenhagen), Dorotheum (Wien/Duesseldorf), Lauritz.com (Duesseldorf), and others more. VNTG.com, professional net-platform for design classics, acts as pr-partner as do several companies, magazines, and dealer-colleagues.

Classic interior design pieces, furniture designed by architects, glass, ceramics, collector's silver jewelry, modernism, Bauhaus, Memphis, Post-Modernism, mid-century – the programme is manifold, due to the variety of offering galleries + private collectors. What they think the visitor + design addict could love + wish to own – they bring it! From Bauhaus via Scandinavian and American Mid-century to Memphis – several hours are needed to cover the entire design classic duesseldorf, a concentrated event that starts on late Saturday afternoon for the sellers (4 pm) and opens on Sunday morning for the public.

First Class Catering – DJ – bookshops – auction houses – ample parking space – public transport “Grossmarkt/Nordfriedhof” – close to Duesseldorf airport. Love to meet you in Duesseldorf!
